MINISTRY OF FOOD AND AGRICULTURE

RESOLUTION

New Delhi, the 20th June 1952

No. SV-108(1)/52-2.—Government of India had announced in April last that as the production of sugar this year was expected to be in excess of the country's requirements, export upto 50,000 tons of sugar would be allowed. In view of the actual production, which has already crossed the limit of 14.6 lakh tons, it is felt that the quantity available for export may be much larger. The Government of India have accordingly decided to appoint a Sugar Export Advisory Committee constituted as under to suggest ways and means of stimulating export of sugar from India:—

Chairman

1. Shri P. A. Gopalakrishnan, I.C.S., Joint Secretary to the Government of India, Ministry of Food and Agriculture.

Members

2. Shri R. P. Nevatia	... } Representatives of the Indian Sugar
3. Shri K. J. Somalaya	... } Mills Association.
4. Shri Maneklal Ujamshi	... }
5. Shri Madanmohan R. Ruiya Bombay	of } Representatives of Sugar Exporters.
6. Shri T. Prasad	... } Secretary.

2. The Committee will meet as often as necessary and continue to function till arrangements have been made for the disposal of all surplus sugar.

K. R. DAMLE, Joint Secy.
